The Challenge You and Your Team Face:

Time is your most important God-given resource — no matter how hard you work, you can't make a day last longer than twenty-four hours. As pastors, church leaders and volunteers, you and your team members may grapple with overlapping activities, growing calendar demands and the challenges of balancing your ministry, family and personal health.

Why This Should Be Your Next Discussion Book

It is possible for you and your team to manage your time so that you can:

- stay on top of the never-ending demands of being a pastor
- nurture your congregation
- spend quality time with your family
- and take care of your physical and emotional needs

This comprehensive yet easy-to-read book contains 30 short principles to put you and your team members on the path to better time management. Each chapter has clear next steps — any of these tips will help your team see immediate time savings and near-instantaneous productivity gains!

Chapters are short and it's possible to cover several during each book discussion meeting. Overall, the book makes for an insightful yet enjoyable read for everyone participating!
